P. P. 44-39-3

ARTILLERY SALUTES DURING THE WAR.

SIR,

It has been decided that no salutes should be fired in British India during the war either for His Excellency the Viceroy or Civil and Military authorities or on Royal anniversaries, etc. His Excellency desires a similar rule should be followed in Indian States. As His Excellency has forgone his salute during the war it is presumed that His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore would like to do the same.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Secretary to the Resident.
